Renesas Electronics publishes two reports—namely, the CSR and Environmental Report and the Annual Report—to describe the environmental, social and economic activities of the Renesas Electronics Group. This CSR and Environmental Report 2010 is intended for the many stakeholders of the Renesas Electronics Group, including employees, customers, members of the local communities where we conduct business, suppliers and partners, and shareholders and investors. With the objective of promoting two-way communication between the Company and these stakeholders, this report explains our approach to CSR and the environment and illustrates our specific activities in an easy-to-understand fashion.

Guidelines Used
• Environmental Reporting Guidelines 2007 (Ministry of the Environment, Japan)
• Environmental Accounting Guidelines 2005 (Ministry of the Environment, Japan)
• Sustainability Reporting Guidelines 2006 (Third Edition) (Global Reporting Initiative)

Reporting Scope
The report covers the Renesas Electronics Group, which consists of Renesas Electronics Corporation, 22 domestic Group companies and 25 overseas Group companies.

Reporting Period
This report primarily covers the period from April 1, 2009 to March 31, 2010, with the reporting of certain subsequent activities.

Publication Date
November 2010

Major Application Fields, Applications and Products

Communications

- Major Applications
  - Mobile handsets
  - Broadband networking equipment
- Major Products
  - System LSI chips
  - Driver ICs for small TFT-LCDs

Consumer Electronics

- Major Applications
  - Digital consumer electronics
- Major Products
  - System LSI chips

Multi-Market ICs

- Major Applications
  - Wide range of electronics equipment

Automotive and Industrial

- Major Applications
  - Automobiles
- Major Products
  - Microcontrollers

Discrete, Optical and Microwave Devices

- Major Applications
  - Wide range of electronics equipment
- Major Products
  - Diodes
